TLBU

Graduate School of Law in Seoul

300, NAEYU-DONG, DEOGYANG-GU
GOYANG-SI, GYEONGGI-DO
SEOUL, 412-751, KOREA
PHONE: (031) 960-1012~4
FAX: (031) 960-1019

Academic Office
admissions@tlbu.ac.kr

30 October 2013

Mr. GAO Yan
Students Affairs Office, Law School of Jilin University,
3rd Dong Rong Building, No.2699, Qianjin Street,
Changchun City, Jilin Province, 130012, P. R. China

Dear Mr. GAO Yan:

Transnational Law and Business University (TLBU) is a unique educational organization seeking to educate future leaders of Asia. All students in our masters and doctorate programs are excellent students who graduated from top-rated law schools from East Asian countries. We provide, for all students, full scholarship which includes free accommodation and meals as well as living and foreign travel expenses. Our students consist of individuals committed to the development and cooperation of their countries which currently include China, Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar, Indonesia, Japan and Korea.

TLBU Global system consists of the TLBU Graduate School of Law in Seoul which opened in 2001, the TLBU Institute in Paris which was established in 2002, TLBU Foundations in Washington D.C. and in NY·NJ Area which have been completed in 2012. In addition to an intensive curriculum of public and private international legal study, we immerse our students in cultural and practical field studies in Asia and Europe. The European field studies include visits to international organizations and international courts in Paris, Geneva, The Hague and Brussels, where students have chance to acquire practical knowledge on international law.

TLBU has accepted excellent candidates from Law School of Jilin University since the year 2001. For the 2014 scholarship program, TLBU continues to invite possible candidates from Law School of Jilin University who satisfy the qualifications outlined in the brochure. Applications for admission should be received at TLBU no later than November 30, 2013. Interviews and tests will be conducted in China by TLBU representatives in December 2013. Successful candidates will join the intensive two year Master of Laws program at TLBU Graduate School of Law in Seoul beginning at the early of September, 2014.

TLBU appreciates your University's support and cooperation in the recruitment process over the last few years and hopes that this cooperative relationship will continue further for the common future development of Asia.

TLBU Academic Student Affairs Office

Sincerely yours,

CHOI Byung Hoon
Acting Dean of the Academic Affairs Office
TLBU Graduate School of Law in Seoul